Dear Mr Srinivasaraya

I wrote to Davar a week ago about the first 7 Mora sanctioned to Mr Bell's appointment as English Professor in the College but found he had left Bangalore on tour to Kolar &c and I do not like worrying him again when he must have many amount of more important

(II) The King's Mate (1) Mr Bell needs as early notice as possible to get a steamer berth at this season and (2) that he should be here before the close of this Session "to set Exam: Papers" for the final "promotion Examinations" as we call them of the Junior Classes. Mr Barrow might set the Papers but would never examine them in time to be of any use to me.

When I got Mr Barrow (III) I thought it would be for only a few months, and I find he is more worn out than I anticipated.

Trusting that you may kindly do what is necessary in the matter.

My dear Sir

I do not know how this matter stands. Under the circumstances related
— related by Mr Ford, may I request the favor of early action

Yours very sincerely
